S.O.A.P. Journaling Method

Before you read scripture, pray that the Holy Spirit would teach you as you read (1 Corinthians 2:6-16). Then read and write down what God is showing you in the following categories.

S - Scripture

- Write out a verse or passage that stands out to you

O - Observation

- If a new book of a Bible, check out a Book Summary (ie. gotquestions.org, insight.org/resources/Bible) before reading - Who is the author of the book? Who is the author writing to? Why is the author writing?
 - *This is so important as we have to acknowledge that God inspired the author to write the book for a specific reason to a specific audience
- Write what the verse or passage says in context - What comes before the verse or passage, What come after the verses or passage, Note what type of literature it is - ie. Epistolary or Narrative, Note repetition of words, phrases, Cause-and-effect/ifs and thens, Questions and answers, Comparisons and contrasts, Bring to mind other verses/passages in Scripture (Cross Referencing), Themes, Key phrases in an effort to best interpret and apply what is being communicated
- Questions to ask and answer like
 - What does this say about God?
 - What does this say about Jesus?
 - What does this say about people?
 - What does this say about the role of the church in the world?

A - Application

- How this passage applies to you:
 - What can I worship God for?
 - How does this cause me to look to Christ?
 - What would change if I truly believed this?
 - Is there a sin to forsake?
 - Is there a promise to claim?
 - Is there an example to follow?
 - Is there a command to obey, something to put into action?
 - Is there something to be thankful for?
 - Is there something to share with others?
 - How will I commit to obey this passage this week?
 - Is there someone I need to contact for any reason?

P - Prayer

- Write out a prayer to God about what He has shown you and pray that prayer out loud
